BOOK SYNOPSIS

"Author Jay has covered, in swift order, the major influences in garden design, from medieval to Zen, with appropriate illustrations and photographs that steal ones gaze. Here and there, shards of garden lore spice things up, such as Persian assassins of the eleventh and twelfth centuries whose life mission was to kill Christians, for which they were promised the delights of Paradise modeled on a version of a garden from the pages of the Koran. With helpful and informative bits of information at the end of each chapter, this is a fine book for taking the first steps into ones own garden of the spirit."--Booklist.
